Belgian Cafe in Koramangala

Posted by ashwin on 29 Sep 2005 | Tagged as: Restaurants

De Lekkerbek
My rating: 5 out of 5

Tucked away in the bad part of koramangala (which part isnt bad) is a nice little Belgian Chocolate Shop and Cafe. Ideal for a quick lunch, and coffee.

Its not very popular in the area, with “Sonakshi Sharma’s Family Restaurant” and “Little Home Restaurant” hogging the customers, but would highly recommend it if you are looking for a quiet and healthy lunch.

I went in and had a Croque Hawaii with orange juice for lunch. For 70 bucks, that was great. I believe they will be starting soups and salads soon. They have a variety of Toasts and Croques ranging from 35 t o 45 rupees and offer fresh sides.

Overall a neat place to check out, especially if you are in the mood for chocolates!

Its located at the intersection close to Raheja Residency in Kormangala, Ist block. Located prominently (!) on the first floor above the laundry shop.
