Super start Sundays

Sundays, you know, are special. Late mornings, bright tees, casual ponytails, a slick of gloss — and you're ready for the goss session with the girls.

At a time like this, all you want is a chill-out zone. Where the clock stops, not the coffee. Where spare chairs are aplenty and no one frowns because you want to put your feet up. Where you can laugh aloud and everyone joins in — because they're having a good time too.

Sundays are for the soft, squidgy side of you. Sundays are for Café Terra, the spot that epitomises the neighbourhood hangout so well it's a guarded secret in Koramangala. As is the ace in its sleeve: waffles, perfectly browned, served with a dash of powdered sugar and dollops of maple syrup.

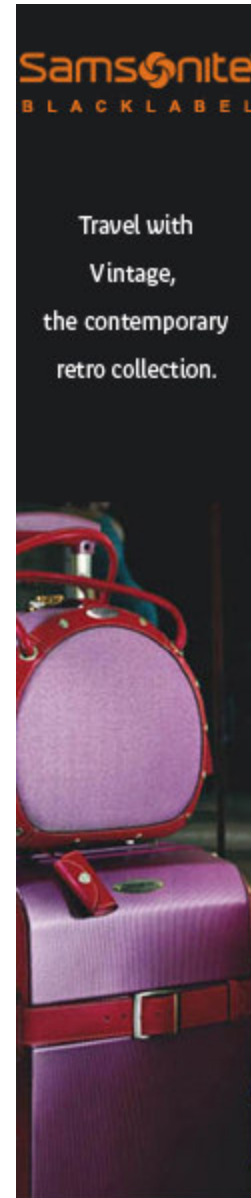

Feel like pumping up the indulgence meter? Ask for accompaniments of fresh fruit and ice-cream. Add a steaming mug of coffee and catch up on the gossip. When conversation flags, leaf through the café's enviable collection of Tintin comics.

Lazy Sundays get even better: Café Terra also serves croquettes, Kip Sla Op Toast (chicken salad on toast) and super entrees from a changing menu.

Sit back. And let Sunday take over.

Café Terra, 1020, V3 Trinity, 80 ft Road, 1st Block, Koramangala, Bangalore. Telephone: 41313553.

Waffles: Rs. 50, ice-cream Rs. 5 extra. From 8 am to 9.30 pm.
